

Elinor Fuchs

author of Making an Exit performs

Conversations with Lil

Elinor Fuchs, a professor of drama at Yale University and author of Making an Exit, shares details of how years of working in the theater taught her about caring for a loved one with Alzheimer's.

Conversations with Lil is a one-woman dialogue based on her award-winning book that illustrates the challenges a caregiver faces and the need for humor and creativity to persevere.

A suggested donation of $10 will go toward the hospital's Connecting Conversations Series through its Spiritual Care Department.

Tickets may be reserved through Philanthropy at <https://giving.lowellgeneral.org/netcommunity/ElinorFuchs>.

Wednesday, November 4
Clark Auditorium
Lowell General Hospital

295 Varnum Avenue, Lowell, MA

Doors open at 6:00 pm

Show starts at 7:00 pm

Seats are limited.

Presented by:

Complete connected care<sup>SM</sup>

care ... above and beyond

Produced in partnership with Spectacle Management